GOOD SHOWING EVIDENCED AT TONO. MINING

There was a slightly better increase in development and ore shipped from the property of the Tonopah Mining company during the week ending January 2 over the previous seven-day period. Development work in the three shafts shows a total of 227 feet of work consummated, and there was 1150 tons of ore shipped to the mill.

One foot of good ore has been encountered in raise 261 intermediate in the hanging-wall of the Mizpah fault vein. This was picked up last week and the values and width of the orebody are steadily increasing as work progresses.

The official report of company operations for the seven-day period ending January 2, as given out by the management, follows:

Silver Top Shaft.

Drifts 125 east and west were continued on small stringers. Drift 237 east has lost the stringer that was being followed. In raise 264 there is no change to report. Drift 5026 intermediate west is drifting on about 1 foot of low-grade quartz. Footage 113. Tonnage 300.

Mizpah Shaft.

Drift 261 intermediate is drifting on 1 foot of good ore in the hanging-wall of the Mizpah fault vein. Raise 369 A has been started out of raise 369. Drift 573 intermediate has no change to report. Drift 613 made the usual progress with no change to report. Footage 62. Tonnage 550.

Sand Grass Shaft.

Raise 1020 has holed to stope 1010. Raise 1021 is being carried on 2 feet of low-grade ore. Raise 1023 has cut the Upper Sand Grass vein east of stope 1010 and shows about 1 foot of mill ore. Raise 1024 has no change to report. Footage 52. Tonnage 300.

MUCH SILVER PURCHASED BY GOVERNMENT

The total purchase of silver that has been made by the government under the Pittman act has been $8,644,888 ounces, according to the report of Raymond T. Baker, director of the mint, who says in his review of the silver situation that receipts of purchased silver during the fiscal year 1921 exceeded those of any year in the history of the mint service, not exceeding purchases under the acts of February 28, 1878, and July 14, 1890. The 1921 total was 66,125,511 fine ounces, most of which, or 62,880,550 ounces, was Pittman act silver costing $1 per ounce. The average cost of other purchased silver was 77.115 cents per fine ounce. Including silver received for repayment to depositors, silver coins received for coinage, silver deposited in trust by other governments and transfers of silver between mint offices, aggregate quantity of silver handled during the fiscal year was 71,022,705 fine ounces.

Coinage of bullion purchased under the Pittman act to replace dollars melted was begun in February, 1921, and by June 30 a total of $19,043,000 had been delivered.

Director Baker says in respect to silver dollar coinage: "Every effort is being made to expedite the conversion of this bullion, since, as bullion, the silver is a 'dead asset,' while as coin silver certificates may be issued against it and used to take up a corresponding amount of Pittman act certificates and at the same time replace the federal reserve certificates issued in lieu of silver certificates when the latter were retired to make the dollars available for melting. Converting this silver bullion into an active asset thus reduces the public debt to the extent of the coinage executed, and saves the payment of interest thereon. At the time of writing the accumulated stock of bullion is being rapidly turned into coin and it is expected that this work will be current before the close of the fiscal year 1922, now in progress."

Including 111,168 silver dollars allocated to the Denver mint and melted for manufacture of subsidiary silver coin, the total number of dollars melted under the Pittman act was 270,232,722.

Up to June 30, 1921, the treasury had acquired 66,967,630 fine ounces of silver under the terms of the Pittman act, leaving 141,032,370 ounces yet to be acquired. The total amount to be purchased to fully comply with the act is thus 208,000,000 fine ounces.

WOMEN SAY FARM WORK IS NOT ONEROUS

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—Protests by farm women against being called overworked and downtrodden have followed steps taken by the American Farm Bureau Federation for a national organization of women on the farm.

"Farm women in numbers are beginning to realize the harmful effect of this old-fashioned publicity," declares Mrs. Izzetta Brown of Kingwood, West Virginia, a leader in this movement.

"The farm women who have awakened to their own possibilities say quite frankly that they want to start a campaign of optimism about country life. They don't want to be pitied, nor patronized, just understood—and if possible, a little idealized. They would appreciate it for a change."

For the first time the movement is general all over the United States for farm women to join the farm clubs of various sorts, Mrs. Brown reports.

"By working in clubs in various communities the farm women have learned the value of organized effort in improving country life conditions," she said.

DEATH VALLEY SOAPSTONE IN GREAT DEMAND

Advises received in Tonopah from Shoshone, Inyo county, California, are to the effect that the mining of soapstone, or kaolin, will be in order at an early date and that a heavy production will likely be in order. Shipments of soapstone, the product being used in the refining of oil, were suspended several months ago, but during the past few weeks the Associated Oil company has employed a large force of men in the construction of new buildings for the accommodation of the workmen. New loading platforms have been constructed, as well as erections, while a spur from the Tonopah & Tidewater main line at Shoshone has been constructed direct to the deposits.

Since soapstone was discovered in the vicinity of Shoshone, several large oil companies have invaded the field, best known of which are the Associated, Standard, Shell and Pearl companies. Some of these big corporations have taken over deposits of fullers earth, and shipments of this product have already been started.

There are a number of Tonopah people interested in deposits of kaolin and fullers earth in Inyo county, and the announcement that heavy shipments of both minerals will shortly be in order will prove excellent news.

CUTS OIL PRICE

Resuming its quotation of $3.50 per barrel, from which point it was advanced to $4 on November 2, Pennsylvania crude oil has been forced back to the old figure at which it remained stationary for two months. The cut in price is attributed to the $2 price for mid-continent crude, many of the eastern and mid-western refiners finding it cheaper to purchase mid-continent crude and pay the transportation charges. It is not expected that the drop in the eastern oil price will affect the price in other districts.

WATER GRANTS IN S. A. CAUSE STRIFE

(By Associated Press)

SANTIAGO, Jan. 5.—Concessions granted by the Chilean government giving to private individuals the right to divert part of the waters of the Maure river, an international stream, for irrigation purposes in northern Chile has led to a protest from Bolivia. After diplomatic negotiations the two governments have agreed to submit the question to arbitration.

DECLARES DIVIDEND

It never rains but it pours!

IT WAS "company night."
BUT WHEN I got home.
I FOUND the Browns.
HAD A sick baby.
AND COULDN'T come.
SO I chortled "Oh, joy.
WON'T SUE and I have.
SWELL EATS for two!"
BUT NO, Sue said.
"YOU DON'T suppose.
I'D WASTE all this food.
JUST ON you!"
AND SO I said.
"LET'S PHONE the Smiths."
BUT THEY had headaches.
THEN WE tried the Joneses.
AND THEY fell for it.
AND WHEN grub for four.
WAS JUST about ready.
THE PHONE bell tinkled.
AND THE Brown baby was better.
AND A minute later.
THE SMITHS changed their mind.
AND THE Missus fainted.
"OH, WELL," I said.
"THE MORE the merrier.
WHAT'S THE difference?
IF THERE isn't enough food.
I'LL FEED the males.
ON THE cigarettes that satisfy.
AND YOU women can talk.
AND BETWEEN the two.
WE'LL ALL be Satisfied."
